

December 19th, 2022 - Teen Advisory Agenda

Book ordering: what are some upcoming books that you're excited about? Or books that you wish we had more of, especially non-fiction? Also, videogames! What's coming out soon? Be as specific as possible.

Events: ideas for January crafternoon. A crafternoon project should be something that doesn't require a lot of skill or time to complete (so no knitting, blacksmithing, oil painting, etc). Please keep in mind that our budget for supplies is $150. Examples of past crafternoons include cookie decorating, spooky terrarium, seasonal wreaths, rolled wax candles, bead creatures.

ideas for February scavenger hunt. Past themes have been weird holidays, 1920s/2020s, and duck, duck, goose. What should our theme for this year be? The theme will be how we decide what to "hide" around the library and what the prizes will be. E.g. theme = cats, we hide photos of cats in costumes, cats with weird fur, famous cats of the internet, etc.

Displays: what should our display theme be for January? Display themes can be anything! Fantasy with cool female characters, super-scary thrillers, books that disappointed you, books you'd read again and again, books with a face/dog/blue cover, easy books for the beach, etc.
