

QUIET ROOM POLICY

The Shrewsbury public library is a facility shared by many members of the community, who have a variety of needs and interests in using their public library. Some seek a place of peace and quiet for reading or study.

- The large reading room on the second floor has been designated The Quiet Reading Room.
- This room is reserved for silent reading and study.
- Cell phones, pagers and similar electronic devices must be set to silent and phone conversations must be taken to other areas of the library.
- Please refrain from all conversation in the quiet room. Please take any conversation to other areas of the library.
- No group study or tutoring is allowed within the quiet room.
